

Keep No-Call in force. Do not make any changes for the banks or other groups that want to abuse this. The amount of the penalty should be raised to deter people from ignoring the law that is already in place.